1st: Praise God for bringing us into a new year. Thank Him for all the blessings and provisions in 2022, as you reflect on the past year.

2nd: Praise God for the prayer warriors in our church and community. Pray that God would deepen your own prayer life.

3rd: Pray for the men in our church and their devotion to their family. Praise God for men who love & adore their wives and children, and protect them.

4th: Praise God for the gift of our children and teens. We are so grateful to have them in our church and may we have their childlike faith!

5th: Pray for Chad Hopkins and his family. Pray for complete miraculous healing, relief from pain, and strength for Amanda and the kids.

6th: Pray for our government officials - local, state, and federal. Pray they are making Godly choices and judgment on those actively doing evil things.

7th: Praise God for his goodness that he richly bestows on us. Goodness that on our own, we do not deserve. He is a Good, Good, Father.

8th: Pray that we are a church who seek's out God's wisdom and will for our church. That we live by "Not thy will, but Yours be done."

9th: Pray for safety during driving for the winter months. Pray for safety for those who walk / ride to school & work.

10th: Pray for the Sister in Christ. Pray she would feel encouraged and loved by her church. We ask for a special blessing for her life & ministry.

11th: Pray for the visitors that come to church events and services. Pray they would feel welcomed and encouraged.

12th: Pray for opportunities to share the Gospel with others where ever we do our hobbies/school events/sporting events/etc.

13th: Pray for those struggling with mental issues and situations. We ask for God's mercy and compassion.

14th: Pray for those struggling with alcohol and drug addiction. Pray for God's deliverance from these chains. Pray for protection from temptation.

15th: Pray for Pastor Cary and his wife Penney. Pray their marriage would be God-honoring and they would be blessed in their marriage.

16th: Pray for the seniors and elderly who are lonely and maybe not of sound mind anymore. Pray for those especially homebound and depressed.

17th: Pray that we are a church filled with Titus Men. Men who uplift the Word, who keep each other accountable, and act honorably.

18th: Pray that God would bring new individuals and families to our church. Pray that God would expand our congregation as He sees fit.

19th: Pray for the at-risk youth that Timber Bay ministers to. Pray they receive the support needed to minister to those in the community.

20th: Pray against any sickness and illness - that we may stay healthy. Pray for peace and comfort for those who are ill or worried about getting ill.

21st: Pray that we are a church that honors the Sabbath and rest. Rest that glorifies God and takes time to study His word and to pray.

22nd: Pray we have gospel courage to fight against the evils of abortion. Pray we love & care for women/men who are struggling or have chosen abortion in the past. Give us grace as we advocate for all the unborn children and ministry to their families. May God change people's hearts!

23rd: Praise God for His steadfastness in all things. We can rest assured that He is always with us and FOR us.

24th: Pray for women and their devotion to their homes/families. Praise God they are skilled in so many facets and care for so many in their lives.

25th: Pray for the Rush City Community. We pray that are drawn to our church and find the hope, life, and friendship they desire.

26th: Take time to repent to God of an area in your life you haven't given Him control over. Stop your sinful striving and ask God for help & discernment.

27th: Pray for Brook Seekins, the missionary in Malawi, Africa we support. Pray he maintains strong health in all areas.

28th: Pray for Christians facing persecution all over the world. May God bring peace in the midst of trials and shorten the time of suffering.

29th: Pray against any distractions, especially worldly, as Pastor Cary prepares sermons, ministers to others, and leads the church and his family.

30th: Pray for the future elders of church. Pray that God would lead them very clearly to Restoration Leadership and make it known to current elders.

31st: Pray for the marriages throughout our church and community. Pray we are faithful, loving, and kind spouses who honor Christ and our partner.
